THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro.'s, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The Marion County Agricultural Society will meet this afternoon.

John Boyle, a patient at the Insane Hospital, died yesterday. His remains were shipped back home to Lawrenceburg for burial.

Interesting revival services are reported in progress at Fletcher Place, Grace and Ames M. E. Churches, and the Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The case against Crawford in Squire Feibleman's Court was to have been called yesterday for trial, but William Griffin, the prosecuting witness, is too badly disabled to leave his room. Crawford was fled against by Griffin for assault and battery.

A number of grain men from various parts of the State are in the city, trying to have the Legislature make the weight of a bushel of corn seventy pounds instead of sixty-eight, the present rate. The adjoining States regard seventy pounds as a bushel.

Governor Gray has appointed Thomas Nelson, Bloomington; Joseph Gilbert, Fairland; I. P. McDonald, Columbia City; Robert Mitchell, Princeton; Aaron Jones, South Bend; L. B. Carter, Logansport; Elijah Howland and J. B. Conner, Indianapolis, and T. J. Mann, Sullivan, Commissioners to the National Agricultural Association at New Orleans, which meets on the 20th.

Henry Hoover, wanted at Anderson, where he is charged with burglary, was arrested yesterday by the police.

The horsemen of Indiana organized a Trotting and Pacing Horse Breeders' Association yesterday for the purpose of further developing this class of industry.

Tickets for the reappearance of Mark Twain and George W. Cable will be sold at Plymouth Church on Thursday next. The matinee will commence at 1:45 p. m.

The greatest velocity of the wind yesterday was four miles an hour, at 10 o'clock. The thermometer registered 43.5 degrees at 2 o'clock. At midnight the sky was clear.

A report was received at Police Headquarters yesterday evening, that a meeting of dynamiters was to be held over the river after night. The police went over to look after it, but found nothing of such a meeting.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Matinee at the Zoo to-day at 2. A strong bill will be given.

The Zoo Theater announces an extraordinarily strong bill for next week.

The Elks will give an invitation social at their lodge room to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The dashing little comedienne actress, Miss Frances Bishop, in "Moggs' Landing," will be at English's the last part of next week.

Several fashionable theater parties will witness the Ford Company's performances next week.

The boom at the Dime Museum continues and everybody is delighted with the show given. There will be a children's "bon bon matinee" this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and every little boy and girl attending will be presented with a package of choice candy.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings the attraction at English's Opera House will be Miss Kate Claxton and Charles E. Stevenson in the romantic melodrama, "A Sea of Ice." This beautiful play has been seen here before, and highly commended. Sale of seats now in progress.

The Redmond-Barry combination repeated "A Midnight Marriage" at English's last night to another large and well-pleased audience. It is an excellent play well acted, and it will repay anyone to see it. There will be a low-priced matinee to-day at 2 o'clock and final performance to-night.

The Elks' benefit promises to be "the biggest thing of the season." The sale of seats yesterday was very large, insuring a fine house. The bill arranged comprises the grandest aggregation of talent ever appearing in any one entertainment in Indianapolis, and a magnificent performance is assured. The boxes will be sold at auction to-morrow night at the lodge room. Mr. J. B. Doris, the circus man, has already bid $50 for box "A."

A veritable feast of laughter will occur at Dickson's Grand Opera House the last part of next week, when those talented and popular comedians Harrison & Gourley, and their merry confreres, appear in their universally successful humorous creation, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon." This production has been the reigning laughing success for the past two years in all the principal cities of America from New York to San Francisco, and everywhere conceded to be the funniest of all funny stage productions. Despite the hard times it packs the houses everywhere.

Manager Sackett, of the Monarch Museum, has engaged one of the most wonderful attractions for next week that has ever been seen in this city. It is called the "Automatic Legion," and is in the nature of a clock, modeled after the famous Strasbourg clock. It is seventeen feet high and twelve feet wide, and accurately represents the birth, life and crucifixion of our Savior. It is considered the acme of mechanism, and has been the study of ministers and scientific men of two continents. Miss Myrtle Kingland, the noted lecturer, exhibits it.

The brief season of Grand English Opera to be given at the Grand Opera House, the first half of next week, by the popular Charles E. Ford Company, with Miss Zelda Seguin Wallace as the prima donna, promises to be one of the most fashionable as well as artistic events of the season. The advance sale opened yesterday and was very large, over 200 seats being taken in less than an hour, sixteen seats being reserved by a theater party of well-known society people. The repertoire will be as follows: Monday evening, "Bohemian Girl"; Tuesday evening, "Nell Gwynne"; Wednesday matinee, "Fra Diavolo"; and Wednesday evening, "Gilda" (3 Black Cloaks). The prices range from fifteen cents to $1.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

The indictment against Thomas De Lorne for petit larceny was quashed yesterday in the Criminal Court, and an information was filed against him by the Prosecuting Attorney. The case will be tried next week. De Lorne is charged with the theft of a coat at one of the clothing houses of the city.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company has filed suit against Edward Griffith, Griffith Johnson, John B. Wakefield, Edward T. Johnson and a number of others to foreclose a mortgage given by Edward Griffith to secure a note dated December 11, 1877, for $3,000. It is claimed that the principal is due and unpaid; that there is $1,000 interest due, and $500 attorney's fees, making a total of $4,500. The suit is a reminder of one of the saddest incidents ever recorded in the papers of this city as it calls to mind the story of the death of Mrs. Marietta Johnson. John B. Wakefield of Richmond, is made a party to the suit because a trust deed was made to him by E. T. Johnson and wife for the benefit of their son, Griffith Johnson. Following the making of the deed she committed suicide. The details of the story are familiar to the readers of the Sentinel. The property mortgaged is the real estate on North Pennsylvania street.

The Health Board.

The Health Board met yesterday afternoon in the health office to transact the regular business. President Murphy, of the Metropolitan Police Board; Drs. Brennan and Wands, and Messrs. Kregelo and Herrman were present. After the allowance of a number of bills, Mr. Kregelo, for the undertakers, stated that his brethren have had considerable trouble heretofore in obtaining shipping permits in some cases. He said that when a death occurs a physician rarely succeeds in obtaining sufficient information to fill out the blank death returns. In many cases the birth, age, name of parents, etc.,

are omitted, and in some cases but one or two blanks are filled out. "The reason is that in most cases a physician does not like to disturb the relatives when a death has occurred. The undertaker is sent for, and while preparing the corpse he finds out all the material facts. The body is to be shipped on the next train, which may be due in six or eight hours. Inquiry at the Health Office shows the death return has not yet been made, and until it is made no shipping permit will be issued. The undertaker has to hunt up the doctor, but frequently learns that he is in some unknown part of the city attending other patients, and can not be found for ten or fifteen hours. The relatives are at the depot, and are compelled to go on alone or wait till next day, when the shipping permit can be obtained. This, Mr. Kregelo said, was annoying to every one concerned, and he suggested that the Secretary be ordered to furnish a shipping permit upon the state forms furnished on a duplicate blank by the undertaker, who also should be required to write the name of the physician on the back of the blank. The permit being issued, the funeral is no longer interrupted, and the physician can then come into the Health Office, fill in a blank from that furnished by the undertaker and sign it, thus also saving him unnecessary trouble. Quite a discussion ensued, and a number of objections were offered. Finally the plan was adopted. The board also has had an ordinance prepared providing for the condemnation of impure meats, vegetables, etc., by the health officers, and prohibiting the hauling of starch slops through the city unless in air tight tanks or barrels. This is to be presented in the Council at the next meeting.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Major Willis Blanche, of Kokomo, is at the Grand.

Judge Walker, of Madison, and Dr. W. H. Hunter, of Lawrenceburg, are registered at the Grand.

Governor Hendricks went to Shelbyville yesterday to attend the funeral of Hon. George C. Thatcher.

George H. Smith, General Passenger Agent of the Merchants' Dispatch Transportation Company, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. L. D. Leveque, of Terre Haute, a prominent young attorney, was in the city yesterday combining business with pleasure. He left for home in the evening.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The following cases were decided in the Supreme Court yesterday:

10,993. William F. Iddings vs. John W. Pierson. Hendricks C. C. Reversed. Cole- rick, C.

10,998. David M. Adams et al. vs. John E. Sullivan. Marion S. C. Reversed. Nib- lack, J.

11,182. William D. Shuee vs. Susan Shuee. Tippecanoe C. C. Reversed. Mit- chell, J.

11,819. Joseph J. Sexton vs. the Board of Commissioners of Greene County. Greene C. C. Affirmed. Zollars, J.

11,876. Minerva E. Lecrist vs. Commissioners of Delaware County. Affirmed. Bicknell, C. C.

Attack on a Newspaper Man.

Last night as James Barkwell, correspondent for the Evansville Courier, was passing along Pennsylvania street near Court street, a man jumped out of the alley and struck him with a knife. Mr. Barkwell threw up his arm to ward off the blow, and received a severe cut across the hand. His assailant then disappeared at a 2:40 p. m. Mr. Barkwell attributes it to a man "who has a grievance."
